June Bug Scooter

RVers can tool around the campground or rally grounds with ease on the power-thrifty all-electric June Bug scooter. The smooth-riding portable vehicle seats one adult comfortably, folds to just 28 inches high and weighs 90 pounds. Joyce Newman, a Good Sam Club product tester from Jackson, South Carolina, took a spin on the June Bug and says, "I do not know how I traveled before the June Bug. It's given me my freedom back." PRICE: $1,497 CONTACT: Rick's Specialty Vehicles, 866-798-2227, www.ricksesv.com

Engel MRO40 Portable Fridge Freezer

Peckish RVers can keep their snacks cool on the go with the nimble Engel MR040 Fridge Freezer. The unit has a small footprint but delivers efficient cooling from 12/24-volt DC and 110-volt AC power. A sturdy plastic exterior with rubber bumpers on each corner protects that delicate egg salad, and a reversible lid contains storage space for spare cords and fuses. Good Sam product tester Sandy Preibe from Camarillo, California, took the MR040 on an outing and says, "Travels easy and keeps food and beverages cold on a hot day while driving. It's very convenient not to have to use ice." PRICE: $641 CONTACT: Engel USA, 888-272-9838, www.engel-usa.com

Funky Colored Flames

Need to spice up your campfire fun? Create dancing flames of blue, green and purple by placing an unopened packet of Funky Colored Flames on top of the fire. Providing 30 minutes of multicolored fun, Funky Flames is safe for use in indoor and outdoor wood fireplaces (they aren't suitable for cooking fires). Good Sam Club product tester Arleen Witt of Pollack Pines, California, tried Funky Flames and tells us, "Nice colored flames that really add excitement to any bonfire." PRICE: $5.88 (three-pack) CONTACT: Winlow Products, 416-792-0385, www.campingworld.com
